

Community Care of North Carolina / Carolina Community Tracing Collaborative

Telemundo Hispanic Heritage Month Award Translation:

Wendy Mateo-Pascual has always fought for the most underserved communities in Charlotte, working hard to ensure that they have access to decent health services, quality education, and participation in decision-making. She is co-founder of the Camino Center and creator of the Latino Civic Engagement Program. Her effort and commitment to the community make her an example to follow.